What the Democracy say of U.

Resolution passed by the Harrison county Democratic county convention, Aug. 26, '51

Resolved, That we highly approve of the manner in which "The Democrat's Sentinel and Harrison County Farmer" is now conducted, and that we cheerfully recommend it to our fellow citizens as a good county paper, and one worthy the support of every Democrat in Harrison county.

Resolution passed at a township meeting held in Moorefield, August 23, 1851:

Resolved, That approving of the manner in which "The Sentinel and Farmer" is now conducted, we cheerfully recommend it, as a good county paper to our fellow-citizens.

Fire in Freeport.

On Friday night last, about 11 o'clock, a fire broke out in a large new stable, belonging to Mr. Robt. Holliday, of Freeport in this county, which was, together with another one adjoining it, in a short time burned to the ground. The fire was no doubt the work of incendiary.

Tom. Marshall

Of Kentucky, it is said, has again changed his political creed. Over his conversion as they term it, the whig papers are in ex-travels. Well, all we have to say about this is he is of but little account to any party. So,

"God bless, let him go."

Whig Rallying Cry in 1840.

ROAST BEEF, was the rallying cry of the Whig Union Convention in 1840. But the cry of SAMUEL F. VINTON, when in Congress was—ROAST BEEF FOR THE ARMY IN MEXICO.

The people will remember these things, and the Ohio Volunteers who served in Mexico, will say at the ballot box—NO

SUCH A MAN AS VINTON FOR GOV-ERNOR.

What does this mean?

David H. Lyman, one of the Whig candidates for the Board of Public Works, although nominated for that office by the late Whig State Convention, and that through his own personal agency, is now making a strong Democrats, Prepare for the Fight!

Your enemy—the hosts of Federalism—are in the field. They are led on by Samuel F. Vinton—a man who opposed granting bounty lands to old soldiers—a man who refused to vote supplies to the army, when our brave soldiers were starving in a foreign land—a man who actually introduced into the House of Representatives ONLY TWO YEARS AGO, a bill depriving the people of the right to a voice in the election of the President, and a man too who stands identified with all the infamous measures of Federalism—as their standard bearer.

Democrats of Harrison county!—of the State of Ohio!—if ever there was a time that called forth from you, untiring, enthusiastic and united exertions, IT IS NOW. The campaign, which is now opened, is the most important that has ever occurred in Ohio.—

A new constitution has been adopted, and under this a new system of government will go into operation and a new order of things is to be established. Issues of great and lasting importance—issues involving principles for which the Democracy have long struggled to maintain, are presented for your consideration.

Then arouse ye! Prepare for the great conflict, which is to be decided on the second Tuesday of October, lest the enemy take you unawares. They will leave nothing undone—every thing will be brought to bear that human ingenuity can suggest, for the purpose of again getting into power.

Democrats deceive not yourselves, but be up and at work. Your opponents are secretly organizing in every township. Be active—be diligent—stand firm—cheer up your neighbors—and then meet your foe bravely, and the Democratic banner will triumphantly wave over the hills of Old Har-risson.

Galpinism at Columbus.

A correspondent of the Ohio Statesman, puts to the Post Master at Columbus the following:

"Can Mr. Perry explain how the Legislature Postage Bill ran up from SIX THOU-SAND DOLLARS under Democratic Postmasters, to SIXTEEN THOU-SAND DOLLARS under your [Perry's]

"benighted" rule?"

There are rumors of foul play by the "basest fell" [You understand.] Will you explain?"

There's the way whig office holders take care of the people's money, when they have charge of it. Before an election they make great pretensions of economy, but as soon as the election is over, they forget their professions, they live high, and—the people has to foot the bill!"

It is now about four weeks since these questions have been put to the Post Master, but as yet no answer has been returned.—

Why don't Brother Medary, stir them up, and make them explain? The people want to know.

Kentucky and Ohio Whiggery.

There is a beautiful family fight sprung up in Kentucky among the Whigs. They are quarreling among themselves for nominating Dixon, as the Whig candidate for Governor. They say that it is well known that he opposed the new constitution, and therefore ought not to have been nominated and give this as the reason of his defeat.

After the second Tuesday of October, the Whig party in Ohio will say the same about Vinton.

The Reformer.

Col. Medary has favored us with No. 1, of a very neat campaign paper bearing the above title. We have no doubt but that it will prove an efficient champion in the cause of Democracy, and we should like to see it well circulated in every township in Harrison county. Terms as follows:

Three copies, 1 00

Ten, 3 00

Twenty, 5 00

Back numbers furnished. Subscriptions received at this office. It will be published till after the election.

We have as yet only received Nos. 1 & 3.

The Drawing Room Companion.

Gleason says that he intends to clothe his paper in new type, and otherwise improve it. Now, so far as improvements are considered, we think that out of the question, for it is the best and prettiest published in the east. But Gleason does what he says, and so we shall look for something rich.

It is published at $3 a year in advance, by F. Gleason, Boston. Specimen numbers can be seen by calling on Dr. Knox, the P.

M., or at this office. Send us No. 14.

Bankrupt Candidate.

Daniel Segur, of Toledo, the Whig candidate for member of the Board of Public Works, is, says the Kalida Venture, one of the worthies, who took the benefit of the Bankrupt Law, which the whigs passed, and which is now known as the "Plunder Law."

It is thus he paid his debts, and no doubt many poor men were, by this act, deprived of their just due.

The people will remember this, and give

Small Potatoes!

The following letter from John Hastings, of Moorefield township, to the Whig Senatorial Convention, is the smallest potatoes we have seen for a long time. So said an office-holding whig in Cadiz on reading it. Its rich:

MOOREFIELD, Aug. 27th, 1851.

Gents:—My name having been announced in connection with the office of Senator, for this district, I believe it to be my duty to respectfully withdraw it from the canvass.

I am induced to this step for various reasons—I feel thankful to the Whigs of Harrison and Jefferson for their very liberal support heretofore—it would be more than ingratitude in me not to remember the kindness of my whig friends in Harrison—not withstanding a change is made in the district.

To those persons who have been individually friendly to my nomination—I will personally satisfy them that this step is necessary and proper on my part. I shall readily act with the whigs in support of the nominee of the convention, and I expect to be found instant in season and out of season in trying to promote the whig cause, so long as they continue their constitutional opposition to slavery, and adhere to the doctrines of their creed heretofore published.

Yours respectfully, J. HASTINGS.

Mr. H. is only holding back for Auditor next fall.

Fire in Steubenville.

On Friday last, a fire broke out in the Union Factory, belonging to Messrs. Dunn, Archer & Co., and in a short time the building, together with several old ones in the neighborhood were totally consumed. Loss
